

SERVICES

2X entertainment is managed by JDJ Productions, a Canadian based company specializing in "nouveau" action entertainment for live-stage, film and television.

Live Theatre

JDJ Productions has produced numerous theatre shows in both Canada and China including: "Impact: 2007" at Massey Hall, Toronto, ON; "Samurai Hip Hop" at the Sands Hotel, Macau in September 2008; "XSD" at The Rogers Centre, Toronto, ON in January 2009; and "The Evolution of Martial Arts" at the Richmond Hill Theatre for the Arts in May 2009.

Commercials / Film / Television

2X performers have extensive experience in film, television, music videos and viral marketing. Team 2X pushes the envelope in action entertainment as proven with its award winning commercial "Fifa Street 3" for EA Games, which received over 30 million online views in 2008.

2X action performers have also worked in blockbuster films such as War (Jet Li), The Mummy 3 (Jet Li), Jumper (Samuel L Jackson), Kick Ass (Nicholas Cage) and many more.

Corporate, Public and Theatrical Performances

Team 2X originated with its unique display of live entertainment. Over the past 7 years, 2X has incorporated acrobatics, dance, gymnastics, martial arts, and parkour into one form to entertain audiences around the world. They provide an array of performances to accommodate various budgets and needs.

Seminars, Workshops and Classes

Team 2X has recently opened its first education and training facility in Toronto, Canada. They offer classes for motivated individuals wishing to learn their art, "Xtreme Skills Development". Team 2X also offers seminars around the world and has since received global recognition.

Charity and Community Service

Team 2X takes pride in giving back to the community. They have performed and helped fund-raise for many charities such as the Children's Health Foundation, the Romania Project, the Sichuan Earthquake Relief Fund, and the Chinese Cultural Center of Greater Toronto to name a few.
